

CALENDAR LISTING FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 2008

SECTION: Entertainment / Tourism / Family / Performing Arts

EVENT: THE 10TH ANNUAL CONNECTICUT RENAISSANCE FAIRE

INFO: Take your friends and family on a mythical journey to a time of long ago. Bright banners, colorful costumes, and lively music adorn the Renaissance landscape of this energetic realm creating the perfect outdoor family adventure. Highly interactive performers coupled with artisan demonstrations, nonstop themed entertainment (jousting, madrigals, dancing, magic and more), and New England's LARGEST Medieval Marketplace make this a time you'll look forward to all year long.

LOCATION: Minutes east of Hartford at 347 Gilead Street in Hebron, CT.

DATE: Weekends & Columbus Day, September 27 to October 19, 2008. (4 straight weekends)

TIME: 10am to 6pm

ADMISSION: General Admission $16; Youth (5-12) $7; Under 5 FREE. Discounts coupons available at www.ctfaire.com. Tickets can be purchased at the Faire Box Office.

MORE INFO: The Faire may be in the Renaissance, but it does have a website at www.ctfaire.com with directions, special events, and additional information. For those without access to the internet phone 860.478.5954 for additional information about the faire.

MEDIA CONTACT (not for publication)

- Chris Senecal - 860.652.0300 X526 Cashman & Katz
- Eric Tetreault -860.351.5758 CTRF

Additional info available at www.ctfaire.com under "Media" link including high-res photos.

###