

Called the “perfect way to enjoy the New England fall foliage,” The Connecticut Renaissance Faire offers guests a chance to escape into the past for a day and explore an enchanted age lost to time.

At the Faire it is easy to spend the day immersed in a time of long ago. Bright banners, colorful costumes, and lively music adorn the Renaissance landscape, and this energetic environment turns your day into a fulfilled adventure. Highly interactive performers coupled with artisan demonstrations, themed entertainment, and New England’s largest Medieval Marketplace make this a day to remember.

- Cheer for your favorite knights and observe why plate armor ruled the battlefield for over a hundred years as armored combatants joust on the field of honor.
- Dance the Maypole, challenge thyself at old-world games, and enjoy over 40 hours of themed entertainment daily.
- Chat with highly interactive characters from around the shire as you shop in our Medieval Bazaar filled with thousands of unique gift treasures.
- Tickle thy tastebuds at a delectable assortment of old-world foods like turkey legs and bread bowl stews or stick with traditional American favorites.

What really makes The Connecticut Renaissance Faire stand out is its desire to insure your visit is as enjoyable as it can possibly be. Guests will always enjoy spellbinding shows, delightful shopping, delectable foods, and a day of merriment that will have them longing to return to this enchanted realm of merriment.
